Bless my breasts

Some have two breasts, some have one
Some hang down like over-ripe plums
When my lover takes a hand, they're ready for fun
Bless my breasts

Body of blood and flesh and bone
Made from stars and water and stone
This womanly body is my spirit's home
Bless my breasts

So here's to my body and here's to my breasts
They've been all shapes and sizes, and they're still the best
As a nest for my babies and my lover to rest
Bless my breasts
Bless my breasts

No need for notes on this one....the title says it all.
