Compassionate Eyes © 2000 Linda Allen

May my hands do the work I was sent here to do
May my ears know the truth from the lies
May my voice speak for justice, may I walk unafraid
May I see through compassionate eyes.

Round For the Black Madonna ©2005 Linda Allen

Mother of Mystery,
Womb of the Earth
I will rest in your waters
Awaiting my birth

It's Alright ©2000 Linda Allen

It's alright, who you are
You don't have to be some shining star
Step by step the long day through
Gonna be a place at the table for you

Winter Round ©2002 Linda Allen

On this cold winter's night
Let us seek out the light
May our hearts be warmed
By each other tonight
We will survive
