WOMANSPIRIT

She is moving across the water
She is moving out over the land
She is moving through the darkness
Holding the stars in her mighty hand

She is moving like a heartbeat
She is moving in a lover's sigh
She is moving like a whisper
Hearing the world in a baby's cry

Spirit's moving like a woman
She is creation, she is the birth
Spirit's moving, always reaching
Head in the heavens, Heart in the earth
